O R D E R :

In the reference 1st read above, while forwarding the report on the surprise check conducted on Andhra Pradesh Tribal Welfare Residential Junior College, Chintapalli of Visakhapatnam District, the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau has recommended to initiate major penalty proceedings against Sri G. Ganga Rao, Principal (FAC) and Sri Podirila Kesava Rao, Deputy Warden for violation of duties as per duty chart, guidelines in the circular vide Proceedings in Rc.No.4067/Admn.II(3)/02,dt.5.7.2003 of the Member Secretary, Gurukulam, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad and also for violation of Rule 2(1) (2) of Andhra Pradesh Tribal Welfare Ashram and Residential Education Society, Hyderabad.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, while forwarding Draft Articles of Charges, it was requested the Secretary Gurukulam to initiate major penalty proceedings against Sri G. Ganga Rao, Principal (FAC) and Sri Podirila Kesava Rao, Deputy Warden of Hostel, Andhra Pradesh Tribal Welfare Residential School & Junior College, Chintapalli and to send the Action Taken Report to the Government.

3. In the reference 3rd read above, the Secretary, Gurukulam has reported that the Article of Charges were framed under Rule 24 of APCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964 against them and they have submitted written statement of their defenses. The Secretary, Gurukulam has further reported that he has appointed Inquiry Officer to enquire into the matter. Accordingly the inquiry officer has conducted detailed enquiry as per the due procedure and submitted his Inquiry report on 28.02.2015. As per findings of the Inquiry Officer's report, the charges framed against the charged officers have not proved against them.

4. Government after careful examination of the entire issue, has decided to agree with the report of the enquiry officer, hence herewith order to drop further action against Sri G. Ganga Rao, Junior Lecturer & Principal (FAC) and Sri P. Kesava Rao, Junior Lecturer & Deputy Warden for their lapses at APTW Residential Junior College for Boys and Girls, Chintapalli, Visakhapatnam District.

[P.T.O]

5. The Secretary, Gurukulam, Vijayawada shall take further necessary action in the matter.
